

W. LeRoy Osterloh, 89

W. LeRoy Osterloh, age 89, Pine River, Minn., died Saturday, Dec. 8, 2007 at St. Joseph's Medical Center, Brainerd, Minn.

Services were Friday, Dec. 14, 2007 at Union Congregational Church, Hackensack, Minn., with Pastor Michael Small officiating. Arrangements were with Kline Funeral Home, Pine River.

W. LeRoy Osterloh was born November 17, 1918 to Henry H. and Vera Osterloh in Hecla, SD. He married Vergene Noble, November 19, 1939. They lived in South Dakota, where LeRoy farmed and was a Phillips 66 jobber in Madison. He owned several service stations in South Dakota and Minnesota. They moved to Hackensack, Minn., in 1970, where they operated Sunset Bay Resort. LeRoy also built the Birch Lake Apartments in Hackensack. After retiring, they moved to Riverside Villa, Pine River.

LeRoy was a member of Union Congregational Church, Hackensack, a charter member of the Hackensack Lions and Pine River Country Club, and served as director of the Pine River State Bank for several years. He was an avid golfer, fisherman, and card player.

He is survived three sons, Jerry (Cathy) Osterloh, Pine River, Rod (Jody) Osterloh, Pine River, and Corwin (Arvie) Osterloh, Winona, Minn.; one sister, Vera Fern Elsen, Hecla, SD; eight grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Vergene; one son, Wendell; one grandson, Andrew; and two brothers, Virgil and Robert.